Gather Grow Go

I think just about every fan of Star Trek has opinions on which captain is their favorite. Star Trek fans can be divided by their favorite captain. A lot of fans have strong opinions why Picard, my personal favorite, is the best captain to helm the Enterprise, or why the underrated Janeway is really the best captain. Honestly, I have a hard time choosing a favorite captain. However, if I had to choose one, I would give the edge to Captain Kirk for the original series for one specific reason. He did not believe in an unwinnable scenario. One of the famous tidbits from Star Trek lore is that Captain Kirk is the only person who ever beat the Kobayashi Maru. This was a test that featured an “unwinnable scenario.” It was meant to teach captains to face defeat. However, Kirk believed that everything was winnable and he found a way to win. He cheated and reprogrammed the scenario to make it easier. Facing certain defeat and finding a way out of an unwinnable scenario became a prominent theme in many iterations of Star Trek after the Kobayashi Maru was first introduced in the Wrath of Khan movie.

In the liturgical life of the church, journey through the last week of Jesus’ life, Holy Week. It starts with the triumphant entry on Palm Sunday, continues with the tension of the last Supper on Maundy Thursday, and reaches tragedy on Good Friday. During Holy Week, the faithful remember the time when Jesus faced his own version of Kobayashi Maru. Starting with his arrest in the garden of Gethsemane, Jesus faced his own unwinnable scenario, and by all accounts after six hours of hanging on a cross on Friday it looked like he lost. Despite the events of Good Friday, Jesus was fully confident that this was going down as a “W”, and as scripture reminds us, He even told his disciples this when they were still in Galilee. Jesus must not have believed in no-win scenarios either, because like Captain Kirk, He cheated. Jesus broke the rule. He destroyed the system of sin and death. He made all things new and found a way around the unwinnable scenario. On Easter we celebrate that not only did Jesus come back for the win, but He made it possible for us to find victory in our own unwinnable scenario.

We, humanity, were in an unwinnable situation. We were created to be in relationship with God, but we were cut off from God because of our own selfish decisions. Worse, we seemed to be incapable of overcoming our pride. On our own our best intentions we fell short. We could not overcome our sin and we could not reconcile ourselves to God. God fixed this relationship once and for all. God sent God’s only son, part of God’s very self, to be our Savior. Jesus showed us a better way to live. Jesus fulfilled the old law by following its heart of loving God and loving others. Then, even though Jesus was the only person who had not sinned, even though He was the only person innocent, and the only person who didn’t deserve to suffer consequences of our sins, He was punished. Jesus died for the sins of the world, but He did not stay that way.

Jesus was resurrected. He was fully alive, as He was before He died. He had a staring contest with death, and death blinked first. The rule of reality is that dead is dead, but Jesus changed the rules. He created a new option. In the letter to the Corinthians Paul put it this way, “Death has been swallowed up in victory. Where O death, is your victory? Where O death, is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God! We are given the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.” Jesus won the victory. He beat the unwinnable scenario by refusing to stay dead. The reason why we celebrate Easter is because Jesus did this for us. Jesus did not go for the win for his own benefit, but He did it for us. Jesus took on the impossible. He faced an unwinnable scenario so that we too might experience victory. When we confess our sins and believe that our sins were crucified with Christ, then they are gone. Wiped clean! Forever forgiven! We are reconciled with our Creator once more, in relationship with the God who created us and never stopped loving us. Because Jesus won the victory, we too can triumph in our unwinnable scenario. This is grace. This is the gospel. This is why we celebrate Easter today and everyday!

Easter Blessings Friends!

We will be discussing the book, The Spanish Daughter by Lorena Hughes

"An engrossing, suspenseful family saga filled with unpredictable twists and turns." —Chanel Cleeton, New York Times bestselling author of Next Year in Havana

"With an equal mix of historical fiction, dramatic family conflict, and mystery, this tale should please fans of Christina Baker Kline, Lisa Wingate, and Kate Quinn." —Booklist

Perfect for fans of Julia Alvarez and Silvia Moreno-Garcia, this exhilarating novel transports you to the lush tropical landscape of 1920s Ecuador, blending family drama, dangerous mystery, and the real-life history of the coastal town known as the "birthplace of cacao."

As a child in Spain, Puri always knew her passion for chocolate was inherited from her father. But it's not until his death that she learns of something else she's inherited—a cocoa estate in Vinces, Ecuador, a town nicknamed "Paris Chiquito." Eager to claim her birthright and filled with hope for a new life after the devastation of World War I, she and her husband Cristóbal set out across the Atlantic Ocean. But it soon becomes clear someone is angered by Puri's claim to the estate...

When a mercenary sent to murder her aboard the ship accidentally kills Cristóbal instead, Puri dons her husband's clothes and assumes his identity, hoping to stay safe while she searches for the truth of her father's legacy in Ecuador. Though freed from the rules that women are expected to follow, Puri confronts other challenges at the estate—newfound siblings, hidden affairs, and her father's dark secrets. Then there are the dangers awakened by her attraction to an enigmatic man as she tries to learn the identity of an enemy who is still at large, threatening the future she is determined to claim...

"A lush Ecuadoran cacao plantation is the setting for this imaginative historical drama filled with sibling rivalry and betrayals. Threaded throughout this dramatic family saga are descriptions of cocoa-making that will leave your mouth watering for chocolate." — The Washington Post

"A sweepingly elegant historical novel." — Ms. Magazine

"A lushly written story of bittersweet family secrets and betrayals." —Andrea Penrose, author of Murder at the Royal Botanic Gardens

"Passionate and suspenseful, The Spanish Daughter is a satisfying historical mystery set in a lush tropical land." —Foreword Reviews STARRED REVIEW

"Engrossing...As addictive as chocolate." —Publishers Weekly

"Richly captivating." —Woman's World

"A fascinating historical." —PopSugar

Nutrition

Good nutrition is critical to good health. Poor nutrition is the greatest threat to an older adult's independence. The Oconto County Elderly Nutrition Program offers tasty nutritious meals to anyone age 60 and older. Each meal provides 1/3 of the daily amounts of nutrients needed to promote good health.

St. John's is proud to be a host site for the OCCOA Nutrition and Meal Site Program. But your help is needed. Our meal site will be in need of a new Site Manager to oversee the weekly Tuesday lunch starting in May. If you or anyone you know may be interested, please contact either Karie Peters in the office or our current site manager, fellow St. John's member, Dawn Brouillard. Call (920) 826-7785 or email stjohnsls@stjohnlittlesuamico.org.

From the Church Office

Do We Have Your Email Address?

Are you missing out on important news from St. John's simply because we don't have your email address? At St. John's, we send out one brief weekly email message called "This Week at St. John's" to keep you informed of all the important activities here at church. Occasionally we send a weather-related cancellation or an urgent request for help, but we DO NOT send jokes, chain letters, advertisements or forwarded messages. We don't give out your email to anyone outside of church. You won't end up on any random mailing lists as a result of subscribing. So... please send us an email so we can add your name to our list!

Send it to: stjohnsls@stjohnlittlesuamico.org.

Remember, you can be taken off our list at anytime if you change your mind.

Update Your Information

Now that the Lighthouse is sent online, make sure to update your email with the church so you don't miss any of the important information going out to members.

Please either write your information on one of the green cards located in the pews or send an email to the church office.

All Announcements are Due to the Office NO LATER THAN THE WEDNESDAY PRIOR TO YOUR ANNOUNCEMENT DATE.

Giving made even EASIER!

Simply scan the St. John's QR Code and complete your mobile donation in minutes!

There are PRAYER CARDS in the Narthex beneath the nametags and in the pews. If you have a special prayer request, please complete the form and place it in the offering plate or place it in the office mailbox. Your prayer will be added to the Prayer List and will remain there for 3 weeks. If you wish to have the person's name continue to be listed, you must notify the church office in writing on a prayer card or by email. Be sure to let us know when someone may be removed from the prayer list as well. If you have questions, please contact the church office.

Please be sure to send your May Lighthouse submissions to the church office no later than April 18th. God Bless!
