Gather Grow Go

Dear Beloved,

Know that I have been praying for each one of you as we journey together this Lenten season. I pray your time in our series of Everything In Between has given you pause to reflect on what God is really calling us into in the time of Lent. Calling us into relationship with our God in heaven, our Brother Jesus, and with one another.

Of course, as you know, we are not certain of what Jesus' childhood was like, but this is what I imagine it was. Mary and Joseph knew Jesus had a special journey in life. I believe that although we do not know for certain how old Jesus was when Joseph passed, we know that Jesus experienced grief. The full-hearted pain of losing a father but knowing the love of his earthly father who taught Him the skill of carpentry, of caring for others, how to be a good husband, and how to be a good learner of the Torah. I believe as Jesus was growing up, he knew the love of earthly siblings who would become his partners in ministry. I believe Jesus learned about His Father in heaven from the stories he heard and read as a child and shared as He grew into a wonderful man. I also believe that Jesus experienced all that he did to fully understand and know the struggles of humankind and even knew that as he hung on the cross. Not just as he forgave the people who betrayed him, hung him on a cross, and watched him die in excruciating pain...

THAT FORGIVENESS WAS AND IS FOR US ALL, TODAY!
FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD ...

As Jesus hung on that cross, He knew what the world would be. He knew we would wage war on one another. He knew we would throw words of hate at one another. He knew we would not love God above all things. He knew we would not love our neighbors as ourselves. For HE IS GOD.

Friends, I do not say all these things to make anyone feel bad, I say these things because I give thanks everyday for a God who has REDEEMED us despite all these things! I give thanks for a God who loves us beyond measure that God would send God's only Son to take on our sins and wash us white as snow! I give thanks for Easter Sunday that reminds us everyday that we are not condemned to an eternity of hurt. But as we walk this journey of Lent, I also know we are not near enough in our relationships with God and one another and that our journey in God's earthly kingdom is work, but good work.

These things I pray for us all as we walk to the cross and as we celebrate the Resurrection, the Good News of who Jesus is in the world and in us. "I pray to see thee more clearly, love thee more dearly, follow thee more nearly, day by day." Thanks be to God we have this opportunity daily.

Blessings on your Easter celebrations and SHARE THE GOOD NEWS!

Shalom,
Pr. Stacy

Support St. John's Capital Fund Drive for HVAC Needs

Last fall, the Buildings and Grounds team confirmed that the compressor in the rooftop HVAC unit that cools the sanctuary was no longer functioning. As the unit has outlived its 15–20-year life expectancy, the decision was made to replace it. The cost of the replacement is $40,000.

To fund this project, St. John's is holding a capital campaign for HVAC needs. You can still make a pledge to the HVAC campaign. Pledges must be paid in full by February 28, 2026. Replacement of the unit will not begin until St. John's has the funds in-hand to cover the cost of the project.

To join us in supporting this need, please use the pledge card below to indicate your commitment. Payment of pledges will be noted in giving records and included in quarterly giving statements.

Midweek Lent 2025

Notice the emblem you will see throughout Lent and into Easter.
Take a moment to reflect before you read on...

Do you see two hands drawing near to one another, yet, not touching? There are so many things that happen "IN BETWEEN." The beauty of our God who "created night and day and everything in between; land and water and everything in between; you and me and everything in between." We humans want to put everything into its place and not explore everything in between us, in between the spaces in our lives, the differences in our lives. The beauty of everything God has called good is also in between. In this series you will be hearing many of Jesus' parables to his disciples and to us. These parables hold nuances, complexity, and many layers of meaning, just like our lives do. It is hard for some of us that want a clear cut, black and white answer. In that thinking or that longing for something simple and easy, we sometimes miss out on meeting God in the "IN BETWEEN." Draw near to one another in a non-linear way of thinking. Be open to what the Spirit might be wanting you or needing you to hear for the sake of your neighbor, for the sake of Jesus' ministry in our community and the world God so loves.

Chocolate Easter Bunnies

The Turner family piled into the car after their church's Easter sunrise service and breakfast. It had been a good morning of celebrating Christ's resurrection.

"Dad," said Kendra from the back seat. "Why does our church give us New Testaments on Easter. My friend Patty gets chocolate Easter bunnies at her church."

"You know how much I like chocolate Kendra," said her dad. "But I think that getting a gift that tells you about Jesus has more to do with Easter than a bunny, even if it is chocolate."

? What do you think? Can we celebrate both the Easter bunny and the resurrection of Christ?

? How do you first hear about Jesus?

? How do your actions reflect that Jesus has—

We will be discussing the book, The Frozen River by Ariel Lawhon (March's Book)
AND our new book, Death Midwinter by Elizabeth Oakey.

Three French Hens, two Turtledoves – and a Murdered Man.

The Cotswolds, December, 1928.

The Twelve Days of Christmas Festival is run by Basil Wisden: a good man, a hardworking man – but no more. And when Georgiana Mortimer is sent an anonymous Christmas card, she learns that there is more to his death than meets the eye. Peace & Goodwill to all men? Apparently not.

The Committee's members have history they'd prefer was kept hush-hush, but is any of it motive for murder? As the days count down to the 25th, trees are decorated, carols are sung – and secrets are unwrapped. After all, what could be more relaxing than a glass of ginger wine, a mince pie and a couple of pertinent questions?

Ambition, lost love, rivalry, and broken promises ensure that the Christmas season loses its shine. It's up to Mrs. Mortimer to restore its luster.

Georgiana Mortimer joins the Committee in Book 7 of the Mrs. Mortimer Mystery series – with the aid of her eccentric family, curious friends and Crumpet, her boundless terrier. Set in the frosty Cotswolds, 'Death Midwinter' is a charming Christmas mystery.

Escape to the 1920s in this playful page turner, perfect for fans of Agatha Christie and Downton Abbey.

Have you seen our New Nametags???

Check out the beautiful magnetic name tags now available for everyone thanks to the generous donation of several congregation members! And- if you notice that one was missed or one should be removed or changed, please let the office know! Thank you!

From the Church Office

Do We Have Your Email Address?

Are you missing out on important news from St. John's simply because we don't have your email address? At St. John's, we send out one brief weekly email message called "This Week at St. John's" to keep you informed of all the important activities here at church. Occasionally we send a weather-related cancellation or an urgent request for help, but we DO NOT send jokes, chain letters, advertisements or forwarded messages. We don't give out your email to anyone outside of church. You won't end up on any random mailing lists as a result of subscribing. So... please send us an email so we can add your name to our list!

Send it to: stjohnsls@stjohnlittlesuamico.org.

Remember, you can be taken off our list at anytime if you change your mind.

Update Your Information

Now that the Lighthouse is sent online, make sure to update your email with the church so you don't miss any of the important information going out to members.

Please either write your information on one of the green cards located in the pews or send an email to the church office.

All Announcements are Due to the Office NO LATER THAN THE WEDNESDAY PRIOR TO YOUR ANNOUNCEMENT DATE.

Giving made even EASIER!

Simply scan the St. John's QR Code and complete your mobile donation in minutes!

There are PRAYER CARDS in the Narthex beneath the nametags and in the pews. If you have a special prayer request, please complete the form and place it in the offering plate or place it in the office mailbox. Your prayer will be added to the Prayer List and will remain there for 3 weeks. If you wish to have the person's name continue to be listed, you must notify the church office in writing on a prayer card or by email. Be sure to let us know when someone may be removed from the prayer list as well. If you have questions, please contact the church office.

Please be sure to send your May Lighthouse submissions to the church office no later than April 17th. God Bless!
