Dear Ones of St. John's-

Matthew 25:14-29 is Jesus' parable of the talents. It's a significant parable about investments. A rich man delegates the management of his wealth to his servants, much as investors in today's markets do. He gives five talents (a large unit of money) to the first servant, two talents to the second, and one talent to the third. Two of the servants earn 100 percent returns by trading with the funds, but the third servant hides the money in the ground and earns nothing. The rich man returns, rewards the two who made money, but severely punishes the servant who did nothing.

The meaning of the parable extends far beyond financial investments. God has given each of us a wide variety of gifts, and God expects us to employ those gifts in God's service. It is not acceptable merely to put those gifts on a closet shelf and ignore them. Like the three servants, we do not have gifts of the same degree. The return God expects of us is commensurate with the gifts we have been given. The servant who received one talent was not condemned for failing to reach the five-talent goal; he was condemned because he did nothing with what he was given. The gifts we receive from God include skills, abilities, family connections, education, experiences, and more (Isa 28:24-26, Romans 12:6-8, 1 Cor. 12:7-10). The point of the parable is that we are to use whatever we have been given for God's purposes. This parable tells us that we are to invest our lives, not waste them. This is part of the stewardship we are called to as disciples of Christ.

Beginning this month, you will see that our "announcements" will be shared in our worship service. In our Offertory, we will share the announcements of our church life. This is an expression of our gifts to God as we are called to service. The catch is, you will need to be a bit of a planner. Announcements that you would like included in the service need to be in the office by Wednesdays so we can plan accordingly for that part of the worship service. And yes, our announcements are part of our worship to God, and we are also giving thanks for the work we are called into in Christ's name. Also, you will need to approach the lectern or use the wireless microphone for your announcement as those watching our service online may feel called to respond to the different things we are sharing.

Stewardship is about utilizing and managing all resources God has provided us and in turn we use them for the betterment of humanity and God's creation, to God's glory. Stewardship is more than our financial gifts God has provided but also our spiritual gifts given to us by the Holy Spirit: "to each is given the manifestation of the spirit for the common good." 1 Cor. 12:7

I look forward to watching as the community of St. John's listens to the call of the Spirit to the varied activities we have coming up in the church, and how you will step up to share all the God-given gifts you have received.

In Christ-

Pr. Stacy

Members and Friends of St. John's,

In the past month, church council members have had the opportunity to participate in 2 events, including a full day retreat on a Saturday in mid-February (a special thank you to Michelle Virtues for hosting us) and a 2 hour Lay Leadership workshop the evening of February 22nd .

Despite having to give up my Saturday morning sleep-in day, the retreat was a wonderful day filled with fellowship, learning, and planning. We used the Personality Compass quiz to explore our leadership styles and how we can best use our strengths to support our work. As a "North-East" I'm assertive, determined, and decisive; I like to move things forward and get things done. Not surprisingly, I'm impatient, I lack creativity, and indecision is a pet peeve. I am that person who will ask forgiveness rather than permission. Fortunately, we have a great mix of leadership styles on council to balance me out!

We spent time discussing St. John's mission and vision statements before participating in an activity to set our top priorities for 2024 and another activity to identify our core values at St. John's. More to come on all of this soon! In the meantime, my question to you is: If you had to come up with 4 core values for St. John's, what would they be?

The virtual workshop, facilitated by Jim Ladoux of Vibrant Faith, was offered to us as part of the Living Well Leading Well project that Pastor Stacy is participating in. The 2 hours flew past as Jim shared ideas, insights, and challenged us to get to a place where, as a council and congregation, we are planning for at least a year out instead of focusing on the next 45-90 days. Jim talked about having a growth mindset, a willingness to try new or different ways of doing things. When we have a growth mindset, we are willing to take risk and accept that even if we fail, we will have learned from the experience.

While I could go on about this for several more paragraphs (or pages), I've got 11 months ahead to do so. 😊

Blessings,
Sara Beth

We will be discussing the book, A Million Little Choices by Tamera Alexander

Sometimes secrets just won't stay hidden . . .

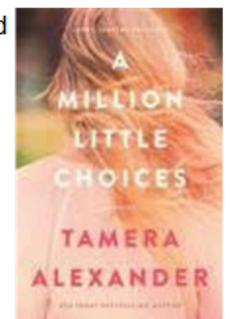

Now from USA Today bestselling author and Christy Award Hall of Fame inductee Tamera Alexander comes the story of two women from different centuries living in the same house who share strikingly similar journeys.

Claire Powell's life is turned upside down when her beloved husband admits to a "near affair." But when Stephen accepts a partnership with an Atlanta law firm without consulting her and buys a historic Southern home sight-unseen—it pushes their already-fractured marriage to the breaking point. Claire's world spirals, and she soon finds herself in a marriage she no longer wants, in a house she never asked for.

In 1863, Charlotte Thursmann, pregnant and trapped in a marriage to an abusive husband, struggles to protect her unborn child and the enslaved members of her household. Desperate, she's determined to right the evils her husband and others like him commit. But how can one woman put an end to such injustice? Especially if her husband makes good on his threat to kill her?

Both Claire and Charlotte discover truths about themselves they never realized, along with secrets long hidden that hold the power to bring God's restoration—if only they choose to let it.

Do We Have Your Email Address?

Are you missing out on important news from St. John's simply because we don't have your email address? At St. John's, we send out one brief weekly email message called "This Week at St. John's" to keep you informed of all the important activities here at church. Occasionally we send a weather-related cancellation or an urgent request for help, but we DO NOT send jokes, chain letters, advertisements or forwarded messages. We don't give out your email to anyone outside of church. You won't end up on any random mailing lists as a result of subscribing. So... please send us an email so we can add your name to our list!

Send it to: stjohnsls@stjohnlittlesuamico.org.

Remember, you can be taken off our list at anytime if you change your mind.

Update Your Information

Now that the Lighthouse is sent online, make sure to update your email with the church so you don't miss any of the important information going out to members.

Please either write your information on one of the green cards located in the pews or send an email to the church office.

All Announcements are Due to the Office NO LATER THAN THE WEDNESDAY PRIOR TO YOUR ANNOUNCEMENT DATE.

Giving made even EASIER!

Simply scan the St. John's QR Code and complete your mobile donation in minutes!

There are PRAYER CARDS in the Narthex beneath the nametags and in the pews. If you have a special prayer request, please complete the form and place it in the offering plate or place it in the office mailbox. Your prayer will be added to the Prayer List and will remain there for 3 weeks. If you wish to have the person's name continue to be listed, you must notify the church office in writing on a prayer card or by email. Be sure to let us know when someone may be removed from the prayer list as well. If you have questions, please contact the church office.

Please be sure to send your April Lighthouse submissions to the church office no later than March 21st. God Bless!
